FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials from the Department of Public Safety – Missouri State Highway Patrol and the Office of Prosecution Services assume the proposal would have no fiscal impact on their agencies.

Officials from the Office of State Courts Administrator assume the proposed legislation would have no fiscal impact on the courts.

Officials from the Department of Corrections (DOC) are unable to predict the effect of broadening the scope of the crime Child Molestation I in this proposal. DOC openings for §566.067 cases in FY09 were as follows: five class A felonies, one-hundred eighty class B felonies and four class C felonies. Offenders from outside the state of Missouri who may now be considered as a prior case if charged with a new crime here is undeterminable. An increase in commitments depends on the utilization by prosecutors and the actual sentences imposed by the court.

If additional persons are sentenced to the custody of the DOC due to the provisions of this legislation, the DOC will incur a corresponding increase in direct offender cost either through incarceration (FY09 average of $16.04 per offender, per day, or an annual cost of $5,855 per inmate) or through supervision provided by the Board of Probation and Parole (FY09 average of $3.71 per offender, per day or an annual cost of $1,354 per offender).

In summary, supervision by the DOC through probation or incarceration would result in additional costs to the department and the exact fiscal impact is unknown.

Officials from the Office of the State Public Defender (SPD) assume increasing penalties on existing crimes, or creating new crimes, will require more SPD resources. While the number of new cases (or cases with increased penalties) may be too few or uncertain to request additional appropriations for this specific bill, the SPD will continue to request sufficient appropriations to provide competent and effective representation in all its cases. SPD assumes a minimal unknown impact.

Oversight assumes the Office of the State Public Defender (SPD) could absorb the costs of the proposed legislation within existing resources. Oversight assumes any significant increase in the workload of the SPD would be reflected in future budget requests.

FISCAL IMPACT - Small Business

No direct fiscal impact to small businesses would be expected as a result of this proposal.

FISCAL DESCRIPTION

Currently, the crime of child molestation in the first degree is a Class A felony if the person has previously committed a sexual offense under Chapter 566. Under this proposed legislation, the penalty for such offense shall be the same when the person has committed a previous sexual offense in another jurisdiction equivalent to one under Chapter 566.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program, and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
